INTRODUCTION

The Charles M. Waters Collection was donated by Valerie W Lavery. The collection contains approximately 300 items arranged into 5 boxes and 3 feet of shelf space. Access to this collection may be permitted for the purposes of personal and scholarly research. The Montgomery County Archives requires that the following credit line be used in all publications to identify that the image or document used is from its holdings: Courtesy of the Montgomery County Archives. Specific citation of where the image or document is located (collection, box, folder, etc.) should be made in an acknowledgements section, footnote, or bibliography.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

In 2017, Valerie W. Lavery donated this collection to the Montgomery County Archives. This collection includes the personal papers of Charles M. Waters, copies of the monthly newspaper Cumberland Lore (1985-2014), various magazines (including Austin Peay: The Magazine for Alumni and Friends of Austin Peay State University and Cumberland), a collection of Austin Peay State University reunion yearbooks, and a small number of books. A collection of 24 Austin Peay State University yearbooks ranging from 1946 to 1989 were removed from this collection and added to the Austin Peay State University Yearbook Collection. All photographs are stored in the Archives Photograph Collection.

A native to Montgomery County, Waters attended Clarksville High School and later Austin Peay State University where he began working as the Director of Public Relations and Instructor in English in 1948. He received his B.S. from the college a year later, and went on to earn his M.A. from the University of Tennessee in 1952. While on the faculty at Austin Peay State University, Waters was a sponsor of several different student publications, including the student newspaper The All State and the annual Farewell and Hail. Several of the items in this collection are related to Waters work as a professor, including essays on literature, excerpts from works of poetry and other stories, and various Austin Peay State University materials. Waters also took an interest in history, writing and editing several works on the history of both Austin Peay State University and the city of Clarksville. Included in this collection are draft manuscripts of The First Fifty Years of Austin Peay State University and Historic Clarksville: The Bicentennial Story, 1784-1984, both of which were edited by Waters. He also served as the editor of the monthly newspaper Cumberland Lore for thirteen years. Charles Waters retired from Austin Peay State University in 1985. In his retirement he remained an active member of the Austin Peay State University community, serving as a member of the 1999 Alumni Reunion Planning Committee. He was also involved with the Montgomery County Historical Society and the Customs House Museum. He died on December 9, 2006.
