Procedures Regarding Constitutional Amendments on the November 4, 2014 Ballot

1. Process for Placing the Proposed Constitutional Amendments on the Ballot

To place a proposed constitutional amendment on the ballot, Article XI, Section 3, Tennessee Constitution requires the proposed constitutional amendments to be passed by two consecutive sessions of the general assembly. The first passages must be by a majority in each house. The second passage must be by a two-thirds vote in each house. The question must then appear on the ballot at the next general election where a governor is selected.

2. The Ballot

T.C.A. § 2-5-208(f)(1) requires the constitutional amendments to be placed on the ballot directly after the candidates for governor. The language reflects the wording of the resolutions, but is put in the form of a question. A "yes" vote is a vote to amend the Constitution and adopt the proposed language in the constitutional amendment. However, a "no" vote is a vote not to amend the Constitution and keep the current language in the constitution unchanged.

3. Requirements to Adopt the Proposed Constitutional Amendments

In order for the amendment to pass and become part of the Constitution, two things must happen:

- 1) The amendment must get more "yes" votes than "no" votes; and
- 2) The number of "yes" votes must be a majority of the votes cast in the gubernatorial election.

To determine the votes needed, all votes for all candidates for governor are added together. This number is divided by two or halved. The number of "yes" votes must exceed that number. If the number of "yes" votes exceeds the number, the Constitutional amendment passes and becomes part of the Constitution.
