

Visitation Rules

These rules apply to everyone

Visitation is a privilege, not a right

1. No CELL PHONES or electronic devices (Cell phones cannot be left with the Deputy and cannot enter the visitation room. Please leave them in your vehicle or do not bring them at all)
2. No bags, purses, back packs, diaper bags, food, and drinks will be allowed in visitation
3. No SLEEVELESS shirts of any kind (this includes tube tops, halter tops, tank tops, and anything that exposes shoulders or breast area)
4. No SHORT skirts or shorts (They are allowed if at a reasonable length)
5. No revealing clothing (example: excessive cleavage, clothing that is see-through)
6. Any supervisor, or visitation Deputy, may deem clothing unfit for visitation. Any visitor who is in violation of this directive, will not be permitted to visit, until they comply with this policy
7. No sagging
8. Everyone (including children) entering visitation must have a visit scheduled and must have filled out the visitation form available on our website or at the booking window (Maximum of 3 visitors scheduled per visit). All inmates are allowed two visits per week (30 mins each visit). Everyone scheduled must share time with the others that are scheduled. Any conflicts will result in both parties being banned from visitation
9. All adult visitors must have proper photo identification
10. Children under the age of (18) must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian
11. Proof of custody is required for all minors (If your name matches the child a Social Security card is acceptable. If it does not, you must provide proof the child is in your custody. Example: birth certificate or power of attorney)
12. Children must remain with parent or guardian at all times. Children cannot be left unattended at any time

13. No running, jumping, climbing, yelling, cursing, obscene gestures or disrespectful comments
14. You can only visit with the inmate you are scheduled to visit. Speaking to other inmates will result in you being asked to leave
15. When your visit is over, you must leave (Please save any questions for the Deputy for when they are not signing people in)
16. Destruction of County Property will be prosecuted
17. We do not accept books or clothing at visitation. We now have a jail library and inmates are issued socks and underwear. T-shirts are available for purchase on commissary
18. No tobacco products (this includes dip and e-cigs)
19. If you are a victim of a crime, you are not allowed to make appointments to visit the inmate charged with that crime
20. If you miss 3 visits within a 30 day period without properly cancelling the visit it may result in suspension of privileges. Repeated offenses may result in a permanent ban
21. Kitchen workers will not receive visits during standard visitation times. Their visits will be scheduled for a time during the day when they are not working
