Once the property has been identified, the Clerk will open tax bids for the cumulative amount of land taxes, fees, costs, penalties, interest and Tennessee State Recordation Tax on the amount of the final bid upon which the sale has been ordered.

7. Bidders who fail to pay bid amount on the day of sale may be subject to legal action by the court for breach of contract.

Additionally, the bidder whom herein purchased the property is personally responsible to pay the bid amount as directed. This is a cash sale. The County does not have a finance program. The highest bidder may pay the bid amount using cash, a money order, a local bank cashier's check or other local bank guaranteed funds. Please make the check payable to the Montgomery County Trustee. Payment must be remitted to the Montgomery County Trustee by 2:00 p.m. on the day of sale.

9. The decision and selection of property listed to sell is at the sole discretion of the Trustee as she may determine to be in the Plaintiffs' best interest and as equity would require.

If a property is redeemed, the redeeming party will tender the Redemption to the Montgomery County Trustee's Office within one (1) year from the date of the order of confirmation of sale, as evidenced by the records in the office of the Clerk of the Court responsible for the sale. The purchaser will then be notified by the Clerk of the Court of the tender of redemption. The purchaser shall then have thirty (30) days from date of tender to file a motion requesting additional monies to be paid to compensate the purchaser for any other lawful charges or monies expended to preserve the value of the property or otherwise contest the redemption. The purchaser earns an annual interest rate of up to 12%.

12. If any parcels do not sell at the auction, the parcel may be deeded to Montgomery County or the City of Clarksville. The property can then be purchased from the County Mayor after the redemption period has expired via sealed bid surplus sale.

This cost is payable by the party tendering the redemption and must be paid along with payments of other Chancery Court awarded costs prior to the redemption being complete.
