INTRODUCTION

The Warioto Audubon Society Collection was donated by Ida Sisk Deal. The collection contains approximately 109 items arranged into 1 box. Access to this collection may be permitted for the purposes of personal and scholarly research. The Montgomery County Archives requires that the following credit line be used in all publications to identify that the image or document used is from its holdings: Courtesy of the Montgomery County Archives. Specific citation of where the image or document is located (collection, box, folder, etc.) should be made in an acknowledgements section, footnote, or bibliography.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Ida Sisk Deal donated this collection to the Montgomery County Archives. This collection includes the constitution and newsletters of the Warioto Audubon Society of Clarksville, Tennessee.

The Warioto Audubon Society formed on December 4, 1969. The organization aimed “to engage in any such educational, scientific, investigative, literary, historical, philanthropic and charitable pursuits as may be part of the stated purposes of the National Audubon Society.” Meetings were held on the first Thursday of each month from September through June. The Warioto Audubon Society’s members participated in a number of birdwatching activities as well as held an annual Christmas bird count.
