ORDER

Upon application of the defendant for a restricted driver license, it appears to the Court that defendant's driver license has been revoked for default on payment of a tax, cost, or fine imposed for criminal offense(s) pursuant to T.C.A. 40-24-105 and has entered into a new payment plan with the court. The violation resulting in the defendant's present conviction was not for driving under the influence of an intoxicant, or for refusal to submit to a blood test, and the defendant does not have a prior conviction of vehicular homicide as the proximate result of intoxication, aggravated vehicular homicide, vehicular assault, or aggravated vehicular assault; The defendant has been informed that failure to satisfy any requirements as ordered by this Court shall result in the suspension of the restricted license for a period of six (6) months pursuant to T.C.A 40- 24-105. The restricted license you received at the time of the Court hearing is temporary and subject to revocation if the department determines you are not eligible pursuant to the above statutory law. This is only good until the department has had an opportunity to make a final determination of eligibility for the restricted license. Should the restricted license be approved by the department, it will only be valid for one (1) year from the date of approval.
